One Quick Request

Please don't include my kids names, ages, locations etc.

IS THE INTERNET BROKEN?

#CYBERSUMMIT22

A black and white photograph of an empty theater. The ceiling is decorated with numerous small, bright starburst lights. The seats are arranged in rows, and the overall atmosphere is quiet and nostalgic. The text is overlaid in the center of the image.

“Mommy, what did you watch on Netflix when you were a little girl?”
– My daughter at 4 years old

A large, empty auditorium with rows of seats and a starburst light pattern on the ceiling. The text is centered over the image.

"It's only hacking if you change something"

"Haha that guy got yeeted"

"It wants a password, try *REDACTED*, that works at home"

"I saw something funny on YouTube today"

"Stop trying to see my password!"

"I just started a game, can I finish?"

"Fly that Big Chungus over here"

"Daddy, I searched you on Google today"

"DADDY! She didn't lock her computer!"

Reverse Mentoring

Let the younger generation teach the older generation about technology and services

“It is our choices, Harry, that show what we truly are, far more than our abilities”
